"THE SATURDAY EVENING POST"

The Dance Sensations of Europe

All Europe is a-dance. What Paris and the Rialto dance to-day, Newport, Fifth Avenue and Michigan Boulevard dance tomorrow. And all Europe is gliding, dipping, "hesitating" to the voluptuous strains of the two great pieces of modern waltz music—"Dreaming" and "Passing of Salome"—both by Archibald Joyce.

"Passing of Salome"

Have you ever "Bostoned" to the fairy-fanciful strains of the bewitching "Dreaming" by Archibald Joyce? Here is Joyce's latest—"Passing of Salome." It is THE Hesitation incomparable. The spirit is Oriental. It's a "romance of rhapsody." A riot of revel—to which society dons its merry-making costumes and interprets the very spirit of the Modern Dance.

Try these few bars. At best they can only suggest the hidden melody, the sparkling rhythm which will make this piece the very sensation of all modern dance music.

Famous Waltz "Dreaming" really made the Hesitation Waltz and Valse Boston what they are to-day. The infection of its rhythm has made people dance-mad. The ecstatic lilt of its melody has swept Broadway like wild-fire. Old and young enjoy the graceful, healthful exercise of the Modern Dance to the magic of "Dreaming's" harmony. Remember this, "Dreaming" is one of the very few pieces with a rhythm equally suitable for both the Boston and Hesitation.

Get "Dreaming" today. You'll want to play and dance it a dozen times a day. "Dreaming" is also published as a vocal solo, as introduced in America by Miss Kitty Gordon in Oliver Morosco's New Comedy "Pretty Mrs. Smith."
